1969-1970 Dedication

Mrs. Beverly Brown

The 1970 Trojan Annual is dedicated to Mrs. Beverly Brown. Mrs. Brown is the lead teacher of the Speech and Drama Department at T.H.S.

Because of her devotion and desire to help, Mrs. Brown directed both the Junior Play ("You Can't Take It With You") and the Senior Play ("Pillow Talk"). Mrs. Beverly Brown has plans to direct the U.I.L. Play in the Spring.

Not only does Mrs. Brown direct plays and head the Speech and Drama Department, she is the faculty sponsor of the Troubadors and Thespians.

Because of her devotion to the Trinity High School, we, the Trojan Staff, dedicate this annual to her.

Linda -
Smiling face on campus has frequently helped brighten the days for me. Your always seem so happy & it just santa cheers me up. Best wishes to you in the next two years and I hope you find time to take drama.
Sincerely,
Beverly Brown

Watch Out Changing World . . .

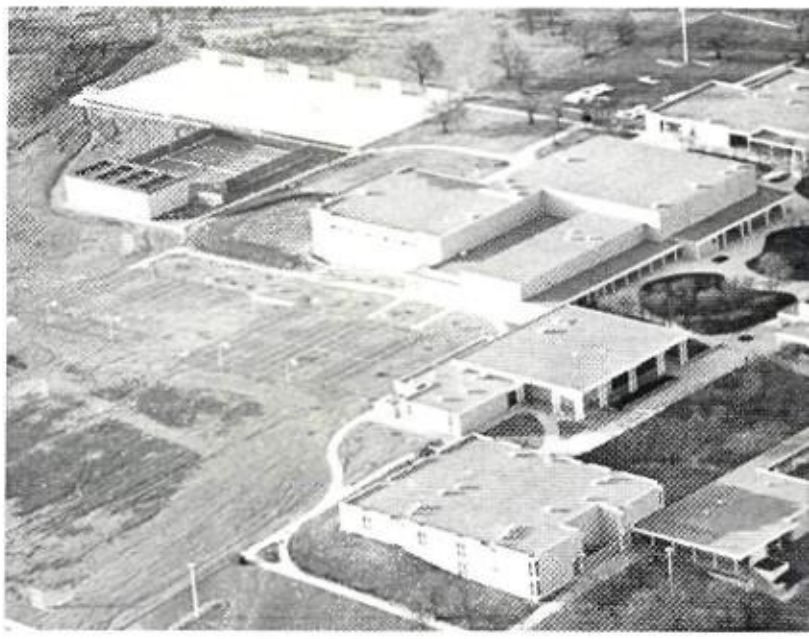
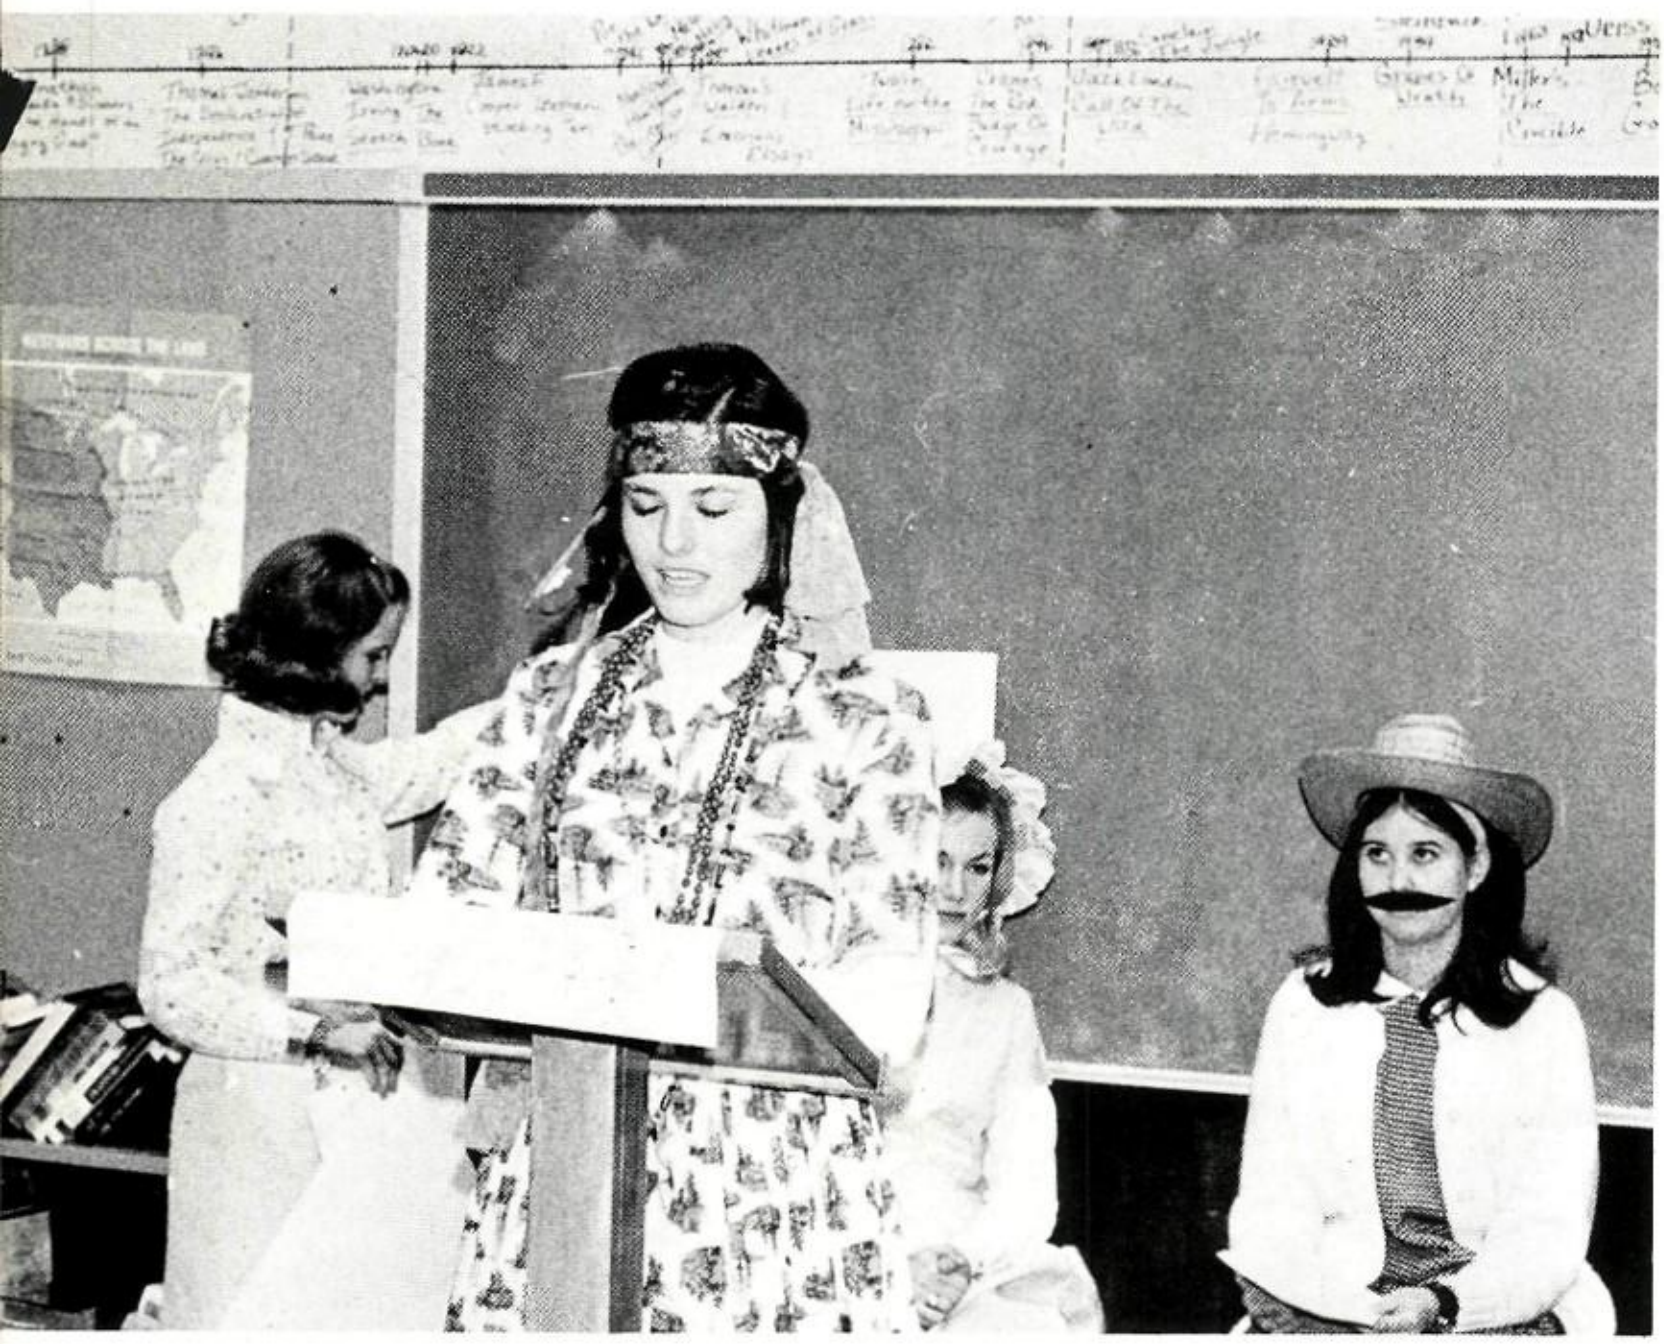
Time progresses and the ever-changing world continues through space to a destiny unknown to mankind. As the times are changing so are the ideas and the ways of living. Trinity High School is ready to meet the needs of this ever-changing world. Our school will be a leader among all schools and will strive for newer and better goals. T. H. S. students take pride and accept the responsibility of a new and changing world. The Trojan Staff has a better way in summing up the above by saying "Watch out changing world ... accept your challenge."





Linda,
Not knowing you too well I can't get to personal and tell you how great you are but I do see that you have got to be one the best examples of Trinity spirit Luck always
Susan

Let Us Begin

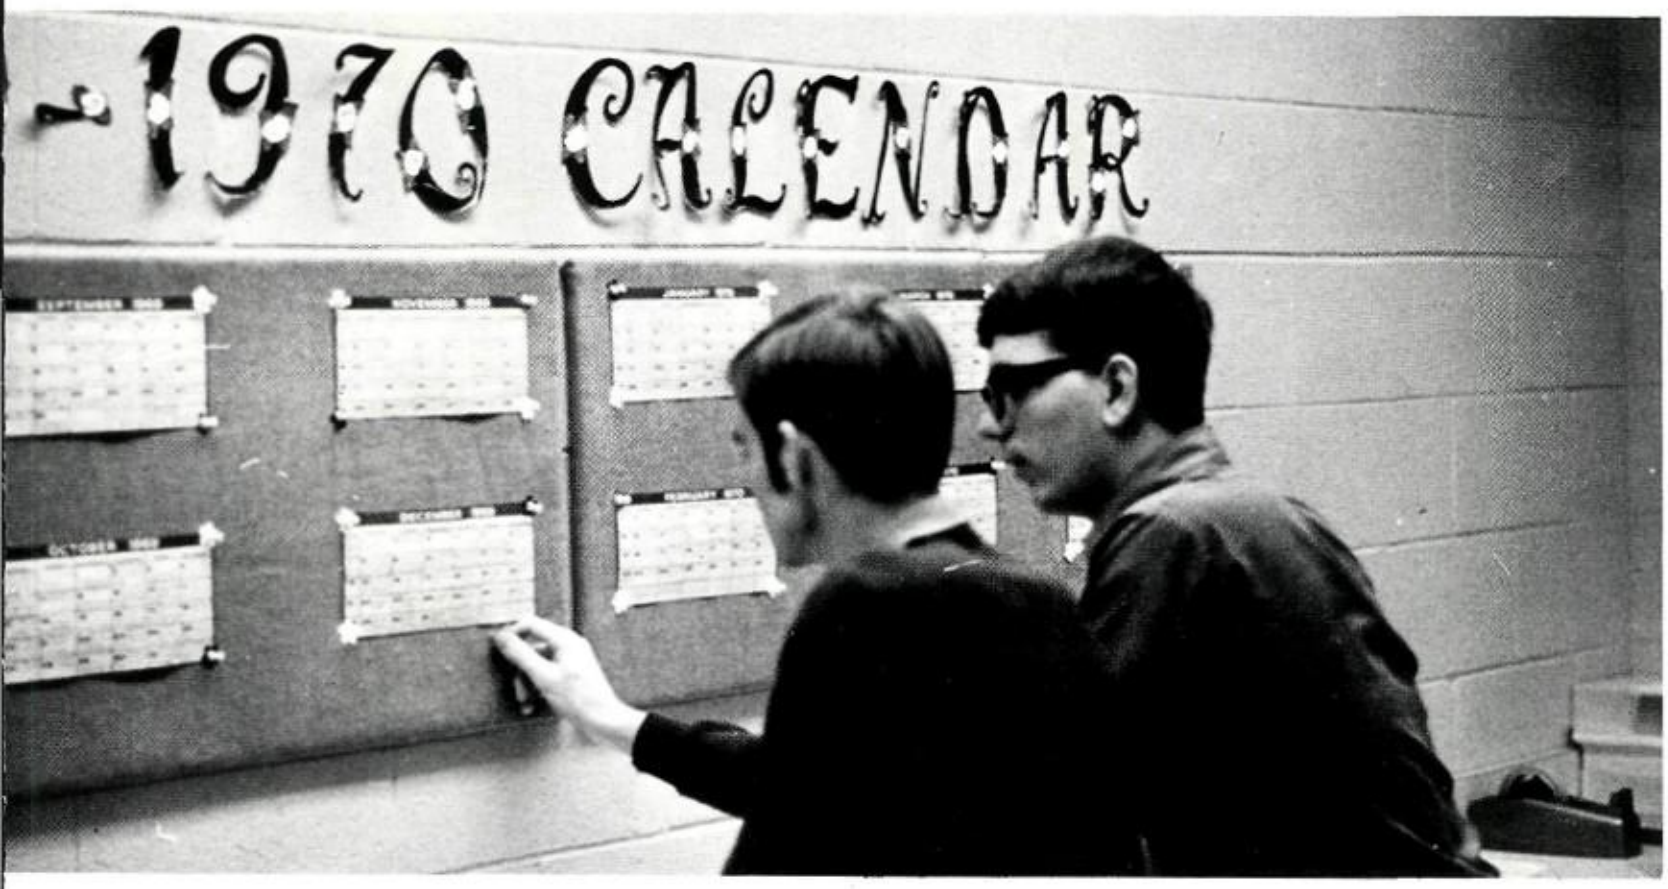
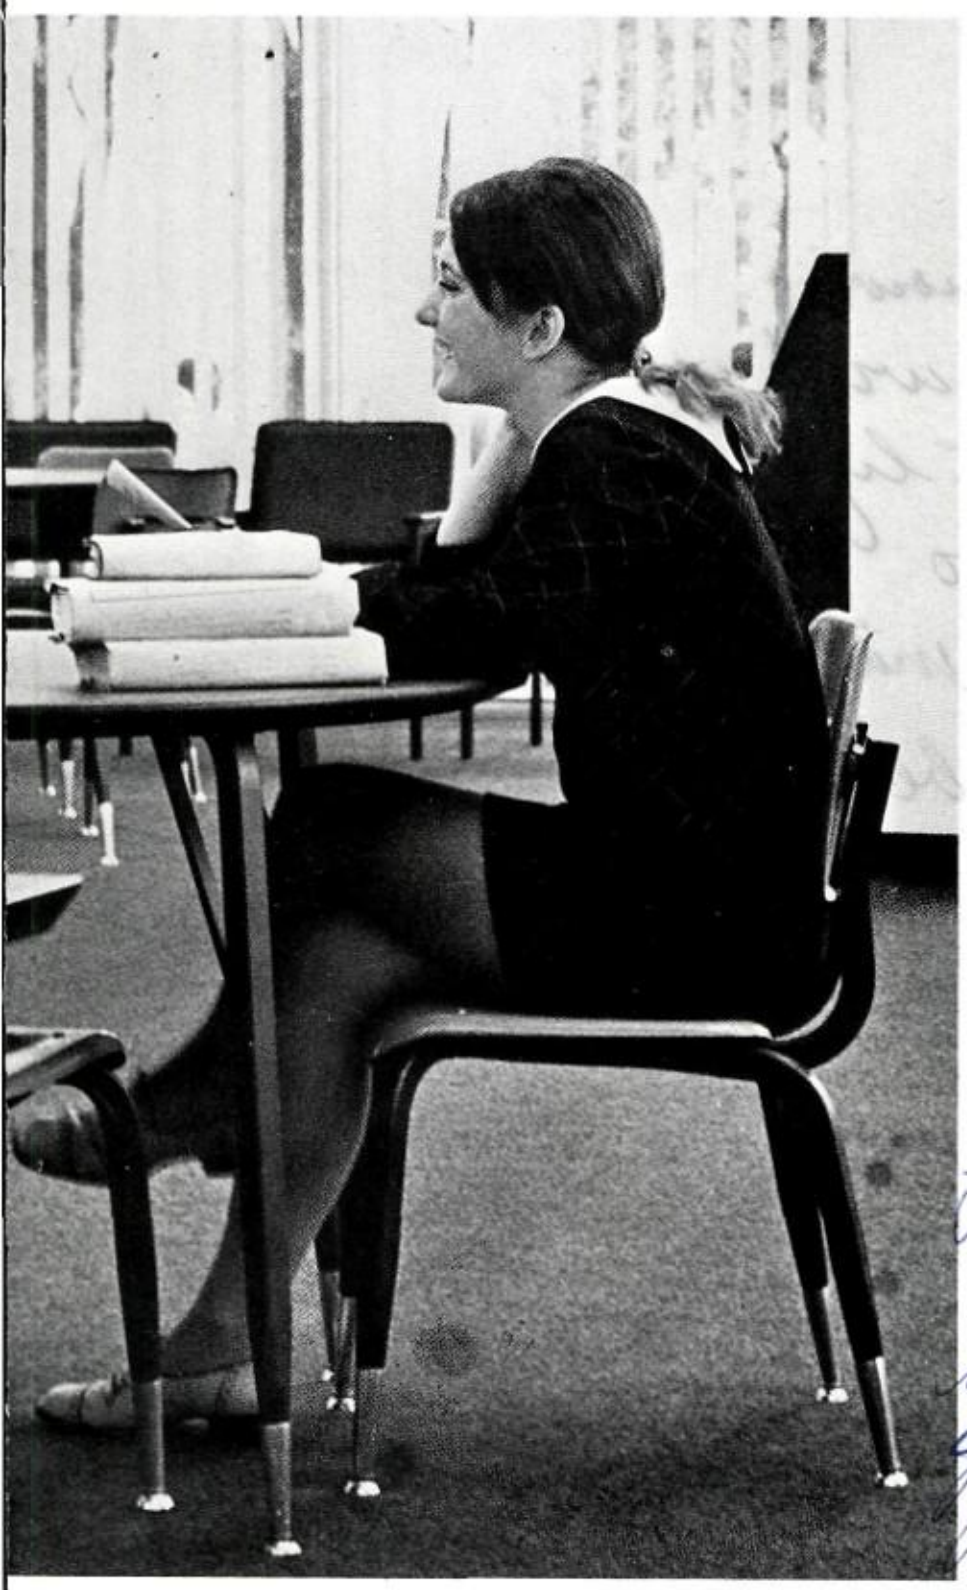
To be a leader among schools we must begin Today. Trinity High School shows that responsibility, pride and determination does make Trinity different. It is this difference that puts us on top.

We are living in a decade when the people of the world are experiencing a beginning in many fields of life. Just as our astronauts brought a new light to exploration with "one small step," let we at Trinity High match this step toward our goals, and begin.





Linda,
So a real sweet girl who I really admire! Keep your sweet personality & pretty eyes. Luck always
Your Friend,
Amy Griggs

Hear Us

At many schools there is a "communications gap" between students and faculty. Trinity High School is unique in that both students and faculty respect the rights and opinions of each other. As a result, teaching and learning are easily accomplished.

At a time when students, rioters, middle generation do-gooders and campus kooks have to scream, yell, and stamp their feet for administration and establishment to hear, we are thankful that our administration can not only Hear Us, but see the black, white, and grey of an issue.

Linda you are a very Nice girl and I hope you stay that way I also enjoy having you in my
G.B. Class. I wish
the Best of Luck
in Your future
Janie Jones

Let Us Continue . . .

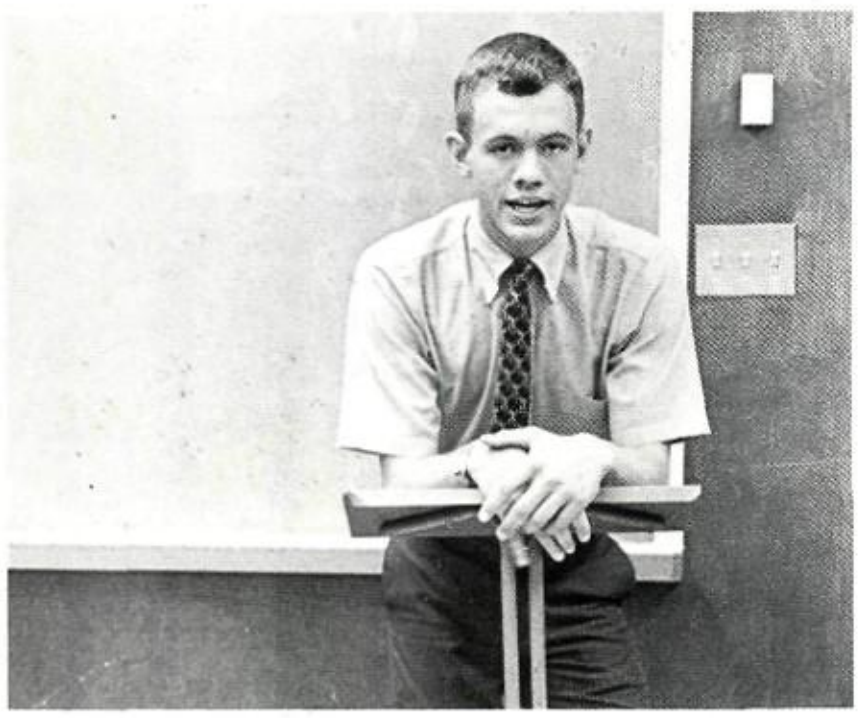
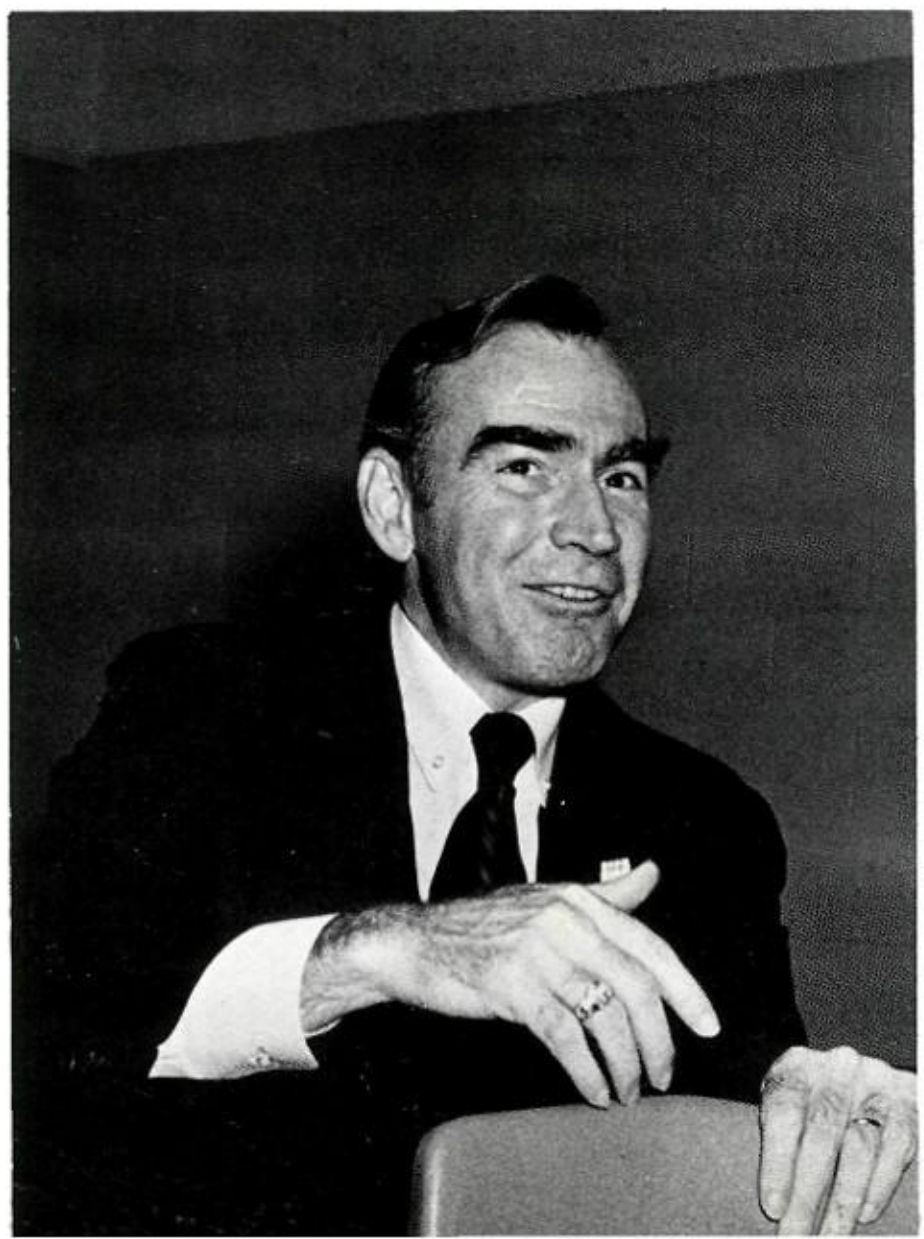
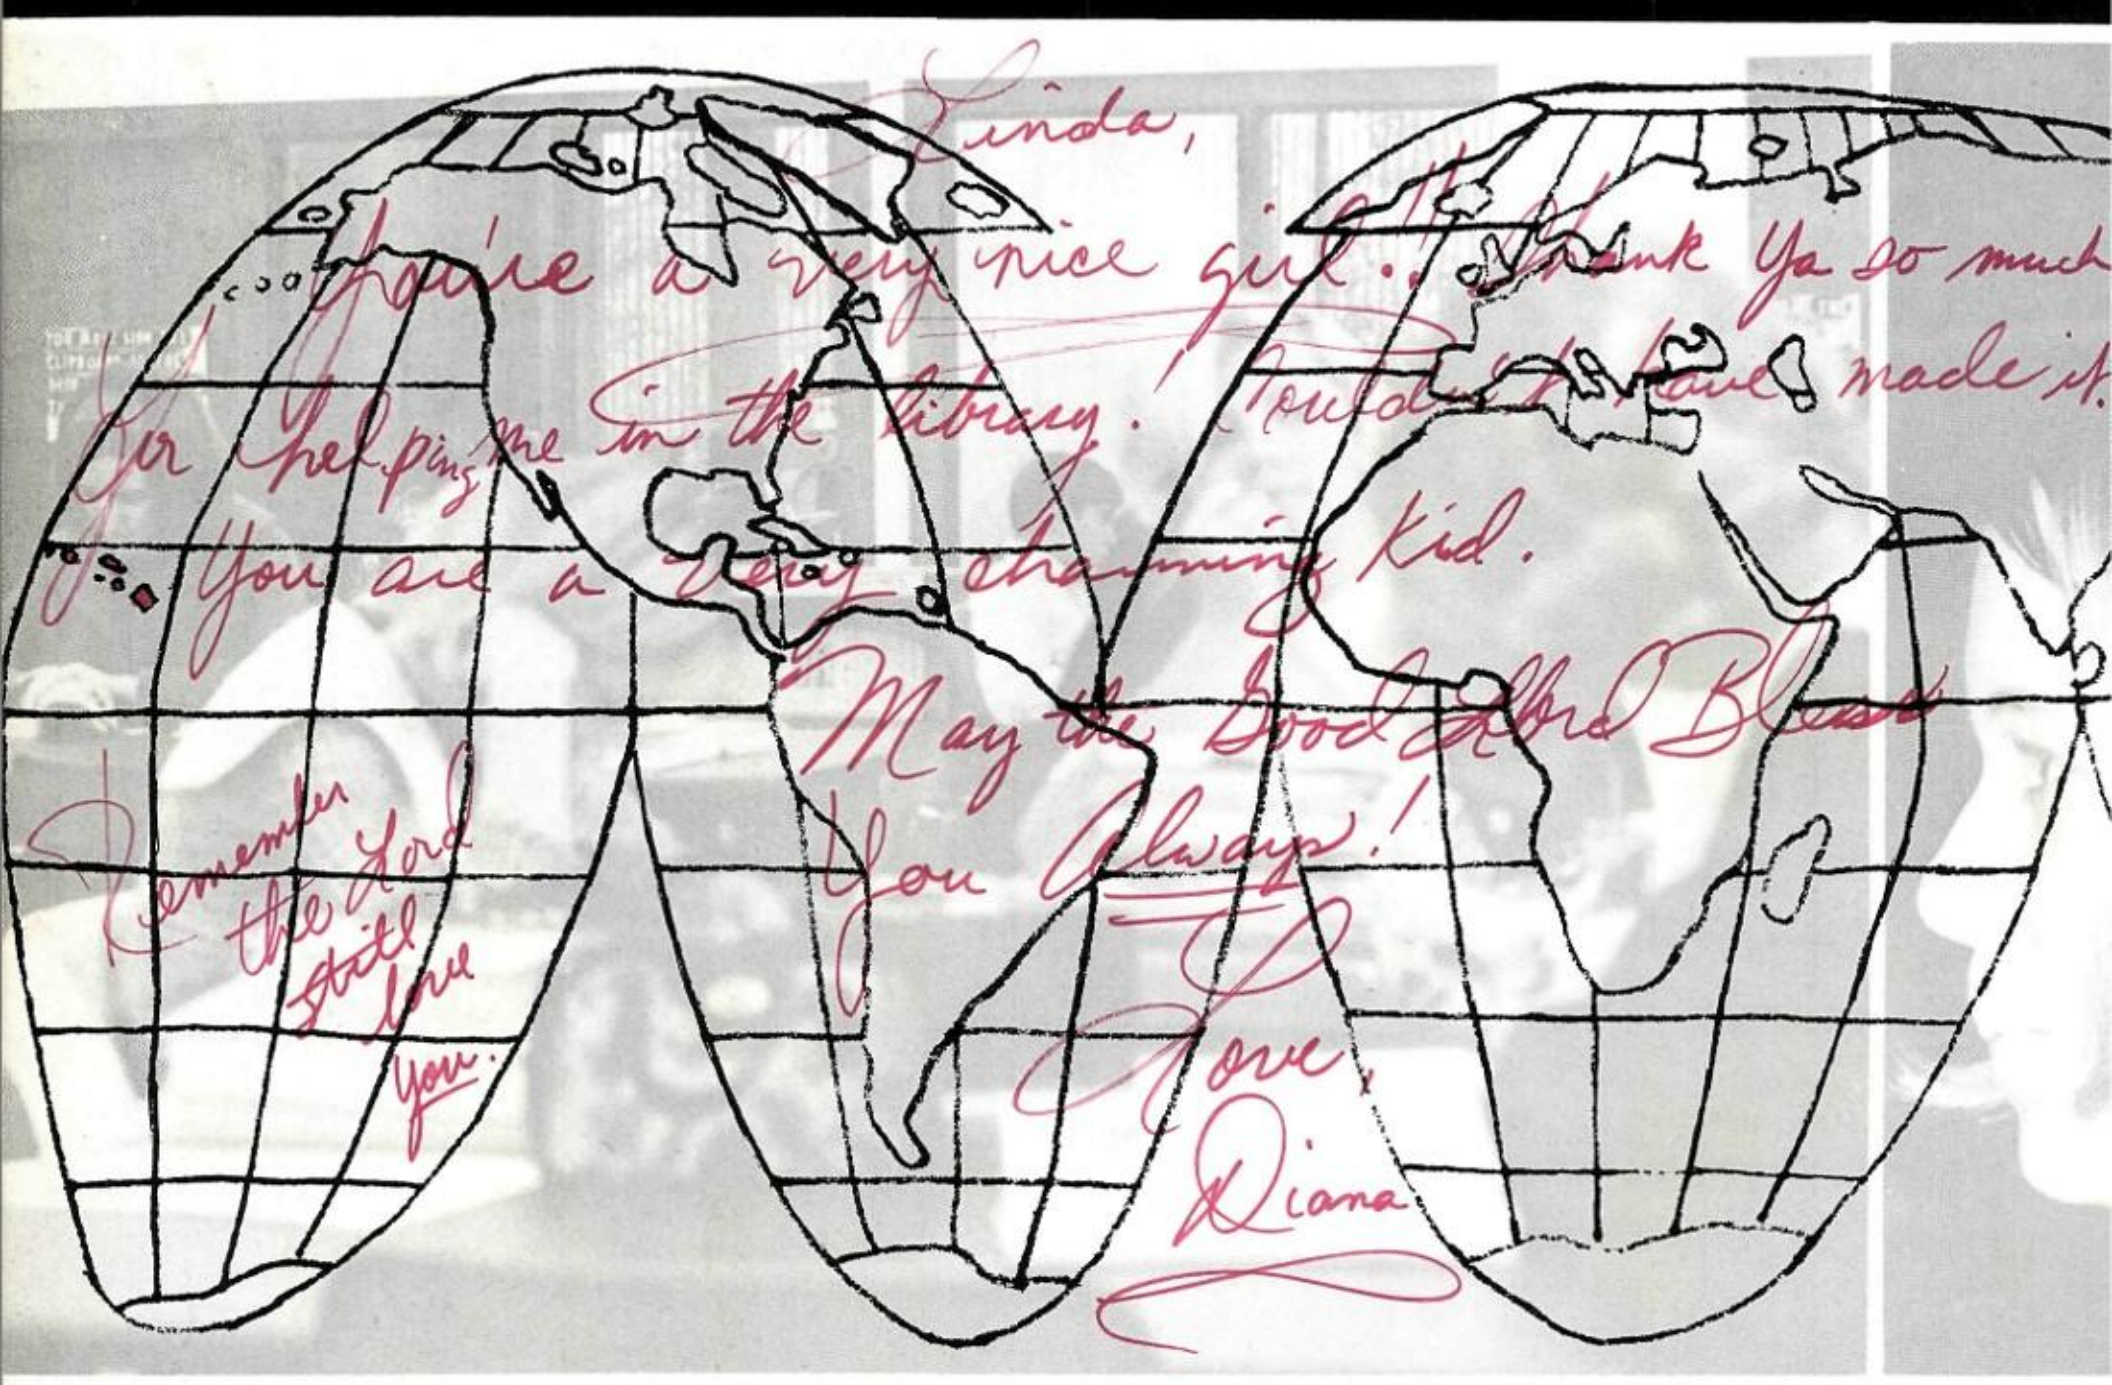
In today's society a change becomes necessary. This need for change has been recognized by the students and faculty of THS. New ideas are in the process of being developed during the school's second year. The first graduating class of Trinity High School will be movin' on. The remaining students must accept the responsibilities and traditions handed down to them. Ours is an ever-changing world and the hope for the future is our challenge.





PEACE



Linda,
You're a very nice girl. Thank Ya so much for helping me in the library. Could'nt have made it.
You are a very charming kid.
May the Good Lord Bless you always!
Remember the Lord still love you.
Love,
Diana

STUDENT LIFE

Trojans Unite Through Pride

Throughout the year, Trojans are faced with many trials and tribulations in which pride is the determining factor between success and failure. Students at Trinity High School possess the kind of pride necessary to make Trinity number One.

Something's Happening Here . . . Ain't Exactly Clear

The range of student involvement moves from individual student effort to group projects. (For example, an industrious group of seniors, pictured on the far right, participate in an unscheduled social activity.) Lynn Dunn takes individual initiative in selling spirit ribbons, while students on the mall demonstrate, "two heads are better than one." # ACADEMIC Trinity's administrative staff is headed by Mr. B. J. Murray. This 1969-1970 school year will mark Mr. Murray's second year as principal of Trinity; however, it is only a part of his 16 year career with public schools.

Students and faculty acknowledge this man's tireless efforts.

Best of luck
to a real swell grad.

V. V. Shearburn

Mr. V. V. Shearburn is the assistant principal and Dean of Men at Trinity High School. As assistant principal, Mr. Shearburn usually assists in making the policies of Trinity, presides over assemblies, and becomes chief administrator in Mr. Murray's absence. His duties as Dean of Men include enforcing school policies and student discipline.

MRS. W. S. WELTON

At the beginning of the 1969-1970 school year Superintendent of H. E. B. schools, Mr. Charles Wages took command for his second year. With the coming of a new year there is a dawning of new ideas. The school board works to increase educational opportunities for all students and raise the status of every form of teaching. The board also aids in handling the complex work that has to do with the financial and administrative supervision of the schools. As a result of Mr. Wages and the school boards efforts, our school system has grown to contain the many facilities it has today.

Registrar — Dean of Women

Trinity's registrar must receive a medal of honor for the outstanding accomplishments she has made throughout the year. It is Mrs. Juana Hill's job to see that approximately 1600 students have a schedule to meet each individual's requirements. She must also co-ordinate the schedules of the teachers and administrators at Trinity. Along with student aid, Mrs. J. Hill has accomplished another successful year.

The dean of women at T. H. S. is actually portraying a triple role this year. Mrs. Betty Rucker not only assists in setting the standard at school but she also is co-sponsor of the Young Christian Women and aids the annual in keeping their picture schedules.

Mrs. Rucker said that Mrs. Hill said that Mr. Chandler said ...

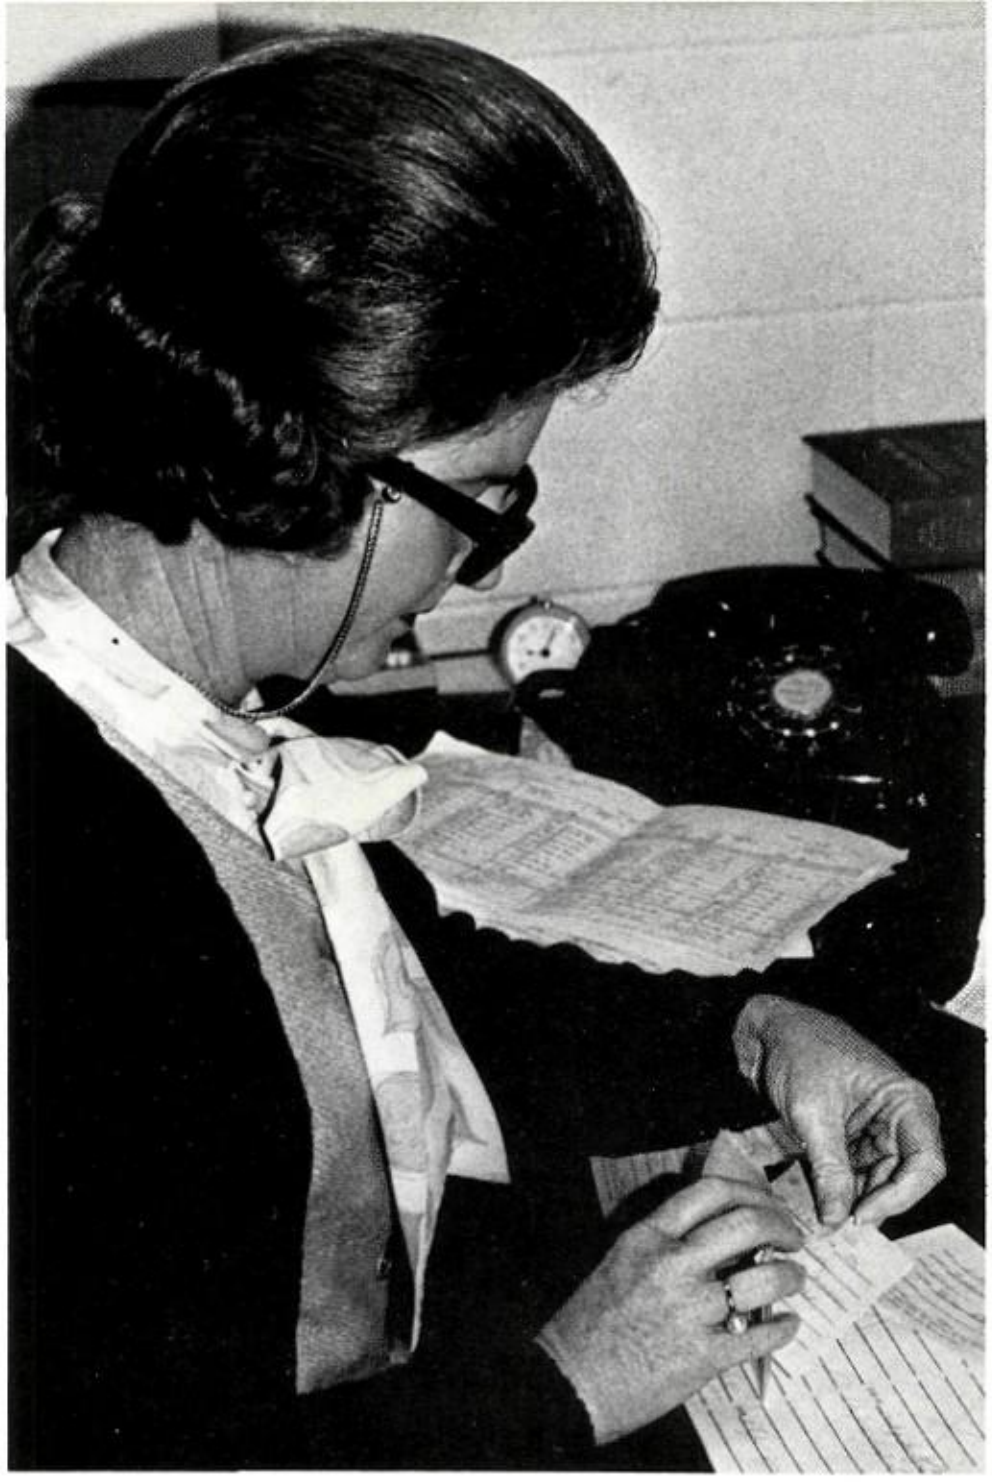
The counselors are responsible for guidance in the scheduling of classes. This includes long range planning as well as yearly planning. They are engaged in extensive testing with all grades. Freshmen are tested over their achievement abilities. Juniors and seniors are given pre-college and vocational tests.

FRESHMAN-SOPHOMORE COUNSELOR:
Mr. Bill Chandler



The counselor's secretary is in charge of setting up appointments as well as working on individual files. She is in charge of filing test scores along with other clerical duties.

Maintenance Staff

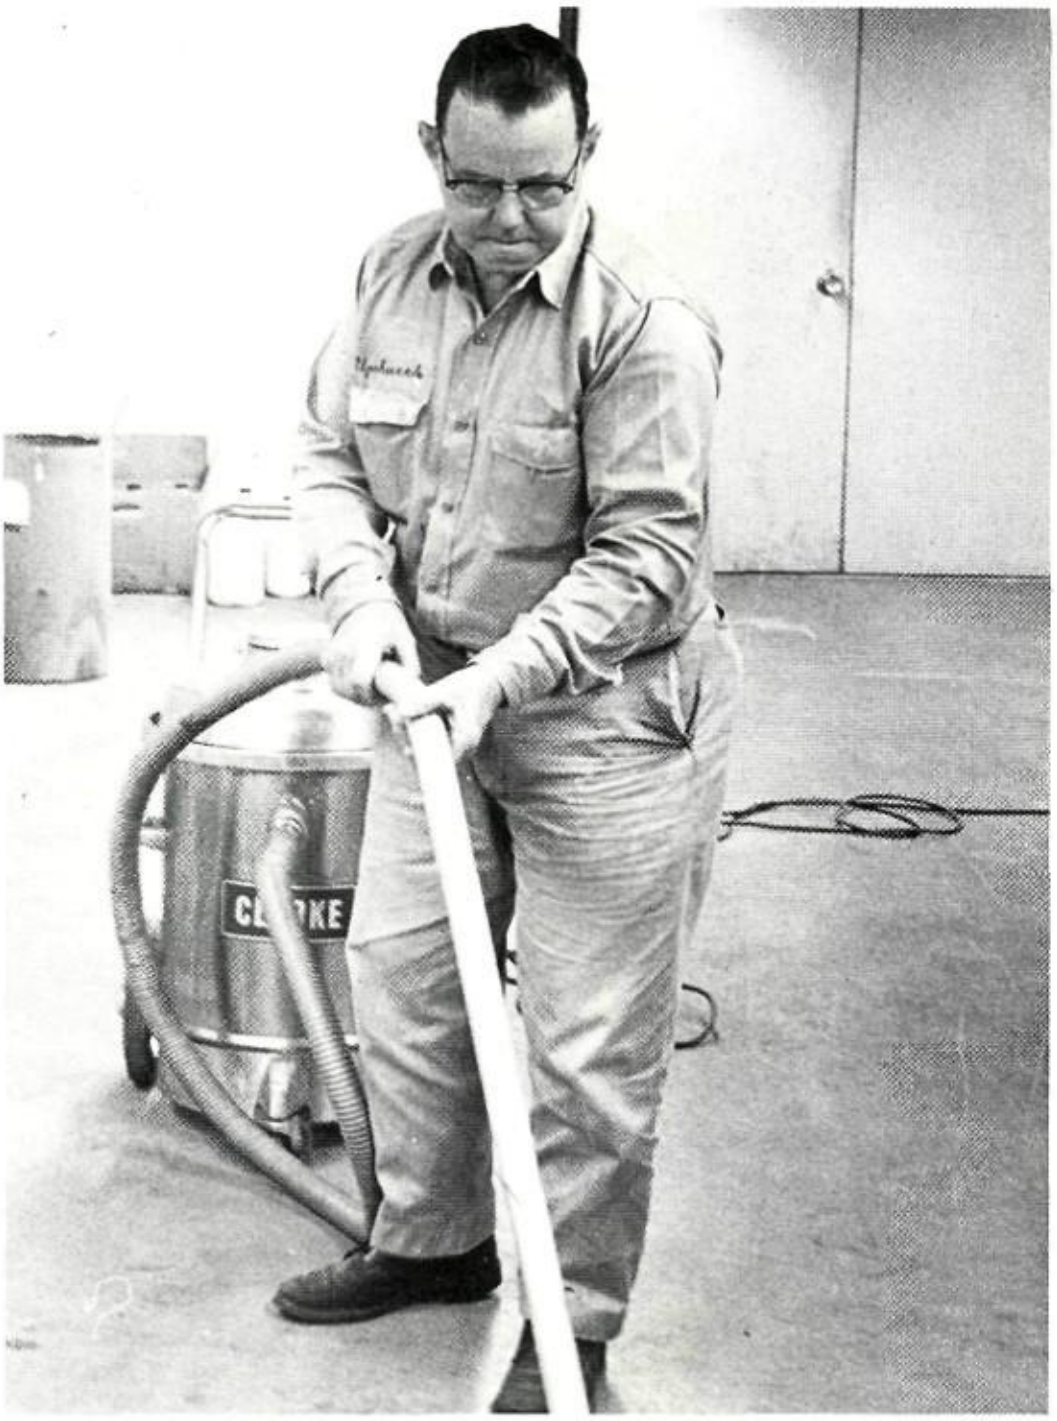
The maintenance staff of Trinity is responsible for the care and upkeep of the school plant and grounds. These men are also on call to assist in repairing equipment that breaks down during the day.

The upkeep of the grounds is also a demanding job. Student organizations assist in maintaining the planters; however, the general landscape is under the care of this staff.



Mr. Thomas Upchurch serves as head of Trinity's maintenance staff.

MAINTENANCE PERSONNEL: Clyde Blevins, B. W. Lammons, R. C. Fielder, Thomas Upchurch, Elmo Evans.

Cafeteria Personnel

The cafeteria personnel is responsble for the preparation and serving of meals during the noon hour at Trinity. With four lines in operation simultaneously during three lunch periods and 1600 students to feed, the employees have their hands full.

The lunch program includes hot plate lunches and a la carte selections. The snack bar is also open to serve students before school and between classes.

Mr. Dale Boaz illustrates his point.

Students taking a math course at Trinity High School are introduced to new mathematical skills, and prepared for the future with courses that are simulated for the college bound student. Opportunities are available in six classes: related math, first and second year algebra, geometry one and two, trigonometry, analysis, and a special course, analytical geometry. Through visual aids and modern textbooks, our students will be capable of receiving the best in mathematical studies.

Mr. Richard McClure explains the many aspects of the cell.

Science Dept. Encourages Development

In keeping with the technical advancements of the day, the newest of equipments and chemicals are being used in the ultra-modern science labs at Trinity.

These innovations include such equipment as: bacteriological incubators, the microtome, an earthquake watch kit, a planetarium, oil immersion microscope lens, ultraviolet lamps, and stroke lights.

Today's Trainee . . . Tomorrow's Employee

Homemaking, home furnishings, home and family living, distributive education, and vocational office education provide a variety of technical, business, and home skills for the vocational department. These vocational courses give the students a varied curriculum that prepares them with special trades as well as with home and family living skills.

The vocational department is under the direction of: Mrs. Henry - home and family living; Mrs. Sales - home furnishings; Mrs. Kirkpatrick - homemaking (food); Mrs. Rucker - homemaking (clothing); Mrs. Miller - distributive education; and Mrs. Nash - vocational office education.

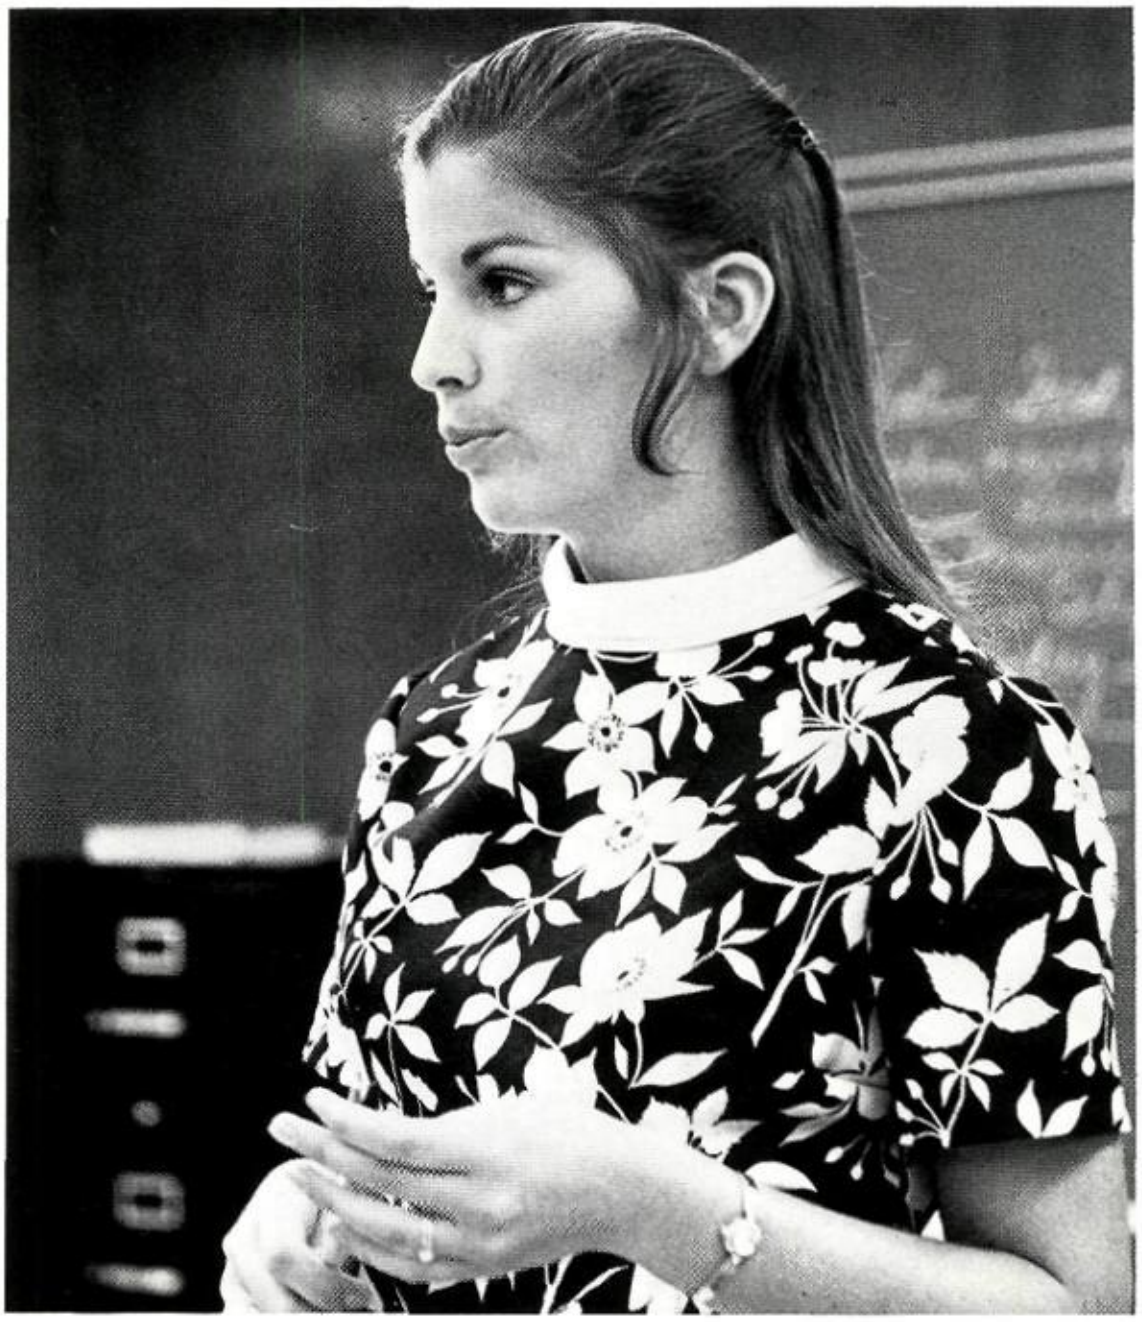
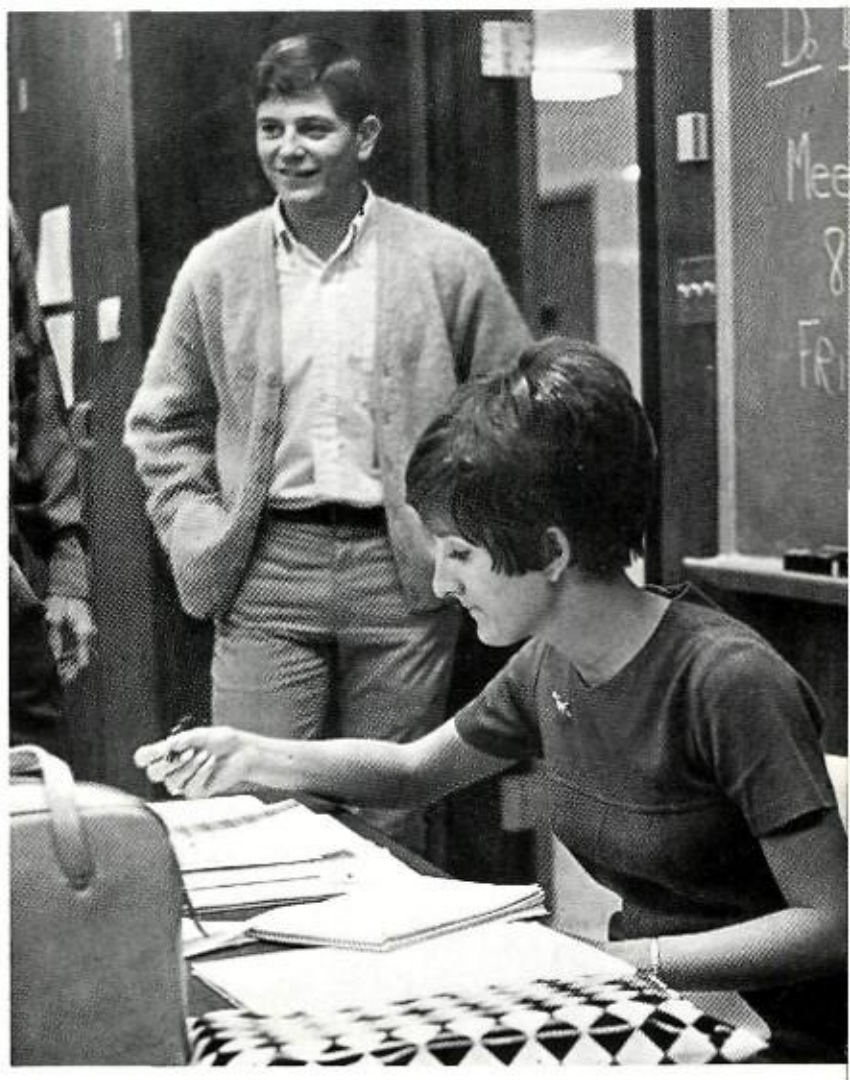
Mrs. June Sales emits another death defying comment.



Mrs. Pat Rucker casts an evil eye.



Mrs. Pat Miller, "Two tardies and it's detention hall for you."

Mr. Robert Garner makes plans to catch up on his grading.

Fine Arts Promotes Creativity

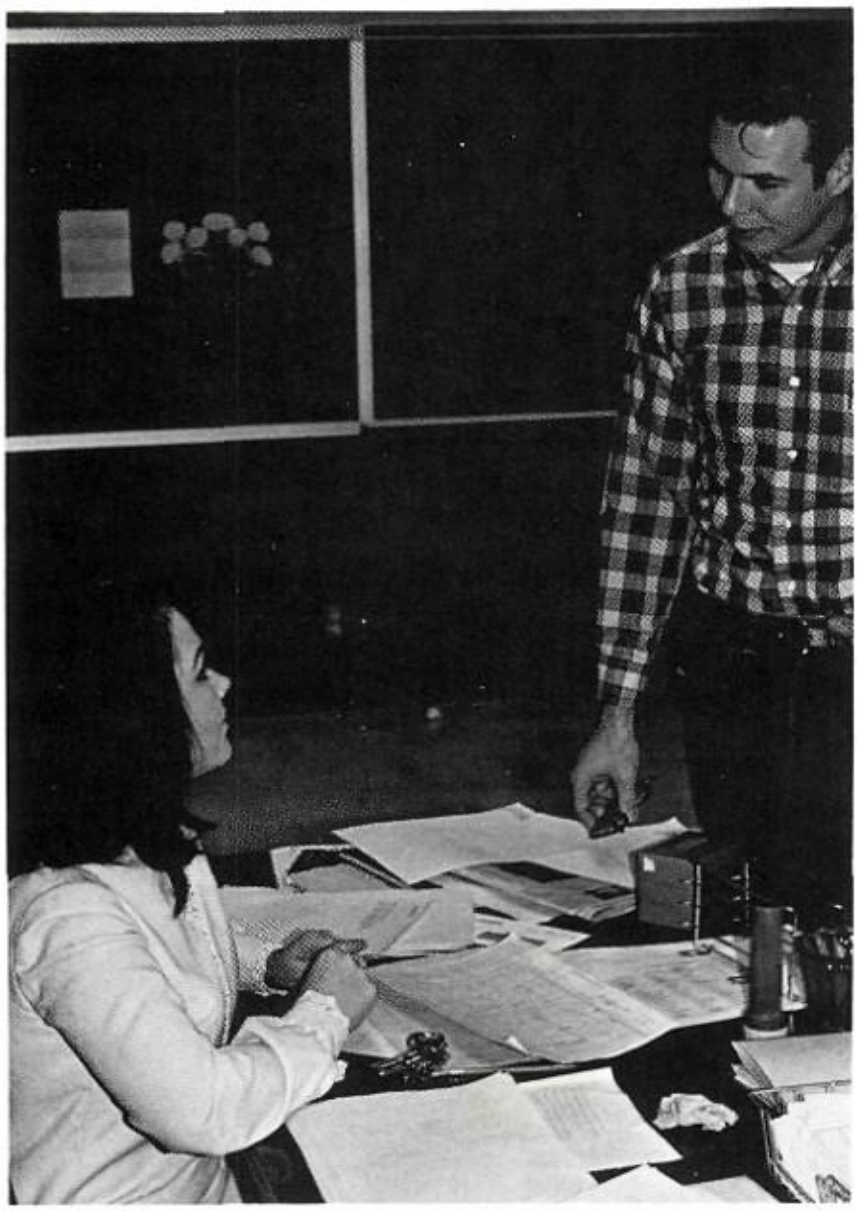
The Fine Arts Department is subdivided into: drama, speech, art, chorus, and band.

Drama is an elective designed for recreation and also to allow the student to express himself emotionally and effectively. Class members learn to work together under pressure and to understand different types of people in all walks of life. To accomplish these goals the department utilizes the auditorium, makeup, and costumes.

Speech is an every day necessity. The teacher instructs her students in communication, as well as listening. The course begins with the conversational level, attempting to get people to speak with each other.

Mrs. June Van Cleef - or is it Van Gogh?

Mrs. Karen Gustavus heaves a sigh of relief following rehearsal.



Mrs. Beverly Brown pauses between classes.

Mrs. Martha Gordon, art instructor, gives technical advice on craypas over crayons.

Mrs. Beverly Brown, speech and drama instructor, prepares for the production of "Our Town."

Mr. Will Reavis plans the half time drill for a Friday night game.

Our art department uses the facilities available to them to promote creative skills. Art consists of two programs: crafts, designed to make functional items: and art, to develop drawing and painting.

We have both Acapella and mixed choruses at Trinity. This musical program is further enriched by concert and marching bands.

English teachers, under the guidance of the lead teacher, Mrs. Mengwasser, attempts to develop composition skills and literary interest in their students. With the aid of opaque projectors, film strips, a video tape machine, and Literature Units, including such topics as Law, Survival, and Personal Codes, their goals are being accomplished. Four new English teachers have been added to the staff this year, and along with them, new techniques. One technique in the English Department is S. O. E. (Speech Oriented English) which is a new concept as opposed to written work. It teaches informative speaking skills which will be valuable to students in opening employment opportunities in areas such as secretarial, salesmen, etc.

In addition to Journalism I, which was a part of last year's curriculum, Journalism II, III, IV are now being taught. The publication of the first Trinity newspaper is anticipated in the spring.

Social Studies: Present Meets Past

In our ever changing world learning and teaching are being developed daily. A staff of nine instructors at Trinity High School are using new techniques in teaching students the social sciences.

Visual aids, as well as records and historical tapes, make the social studies at Trinity more stimulating.

Team teaching, an experimental class, is a new program which combines the required Junior courses, American History and American Literature under the title of American Civilization. Seventy-five junior students are attending this two hour college-preparatory class under the instruction of Mr. Ronnie Banner; history, and Mrs. Pam Martin; literature. The class is an academically new concept in teaching and is forecasted to be successful.

Miss Beverly Ward: "I've got the proof I need."

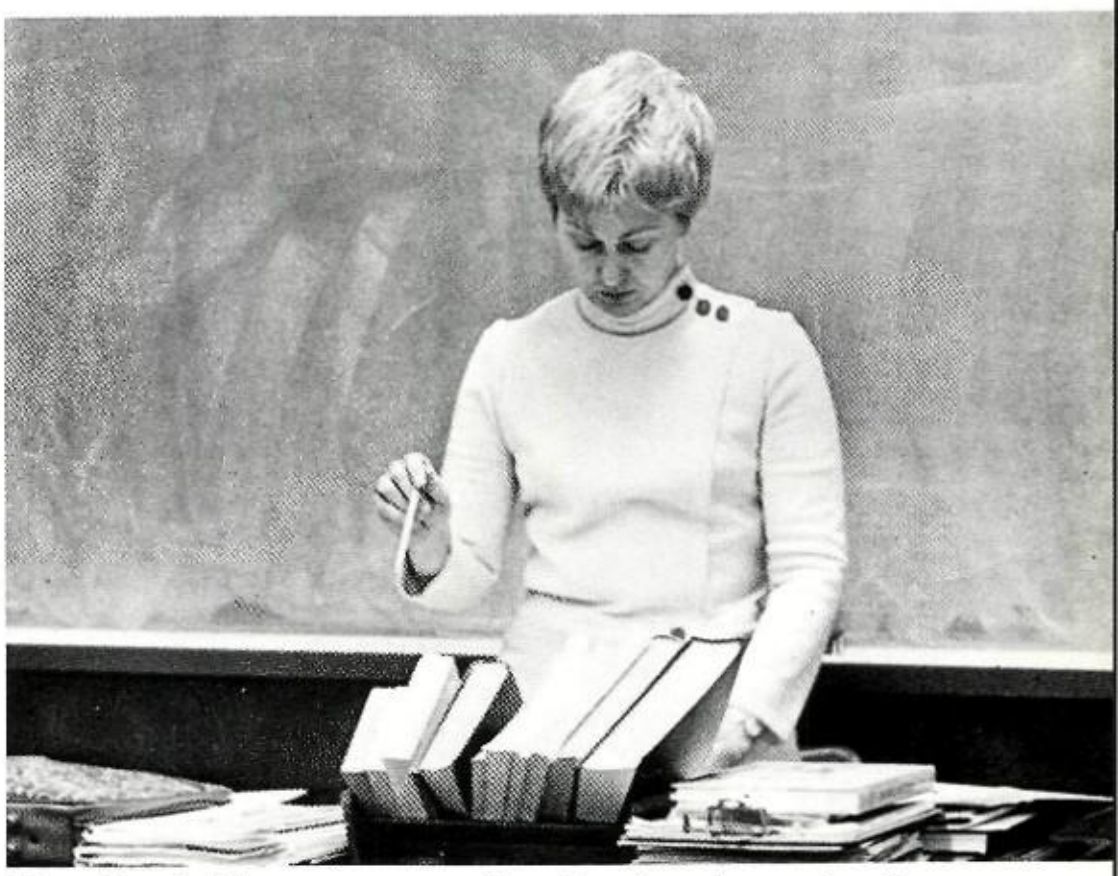
Courses in history, geography and civics keep students accurately informed on the past, present, and future world scene.

Coordinated Vocational Academics Education (C. V. A. E. ) is another new program at Trinity which enables students to participate in the social sciences and simultaneously allows for an off-campus work program. Thus, the student develops practical as well as academic skills.

Mrs. Clarita Dennis makes another point of historic significance.

Bonjour, Buenos Dias, Guten Tag!, Hello.

Mrs. Bobbie Seaman directs another Spanish dialogue.



Mrs. Wanda Montgomery outlines her favorite recipe for sourcrout.

Mrs. Joan Truman attempts to overcome the pronunciation barrier of French.

The curriculum of the foreign language department includes French, Spanish, and German. Both introductory and advanced courses are offered in all three areas. The main purpose of this department is to enable students to communicate with other nationalities, thus solving some of the world's problems of today. Communication leads to understanding.

P.E.: The Road to Physical Fitness

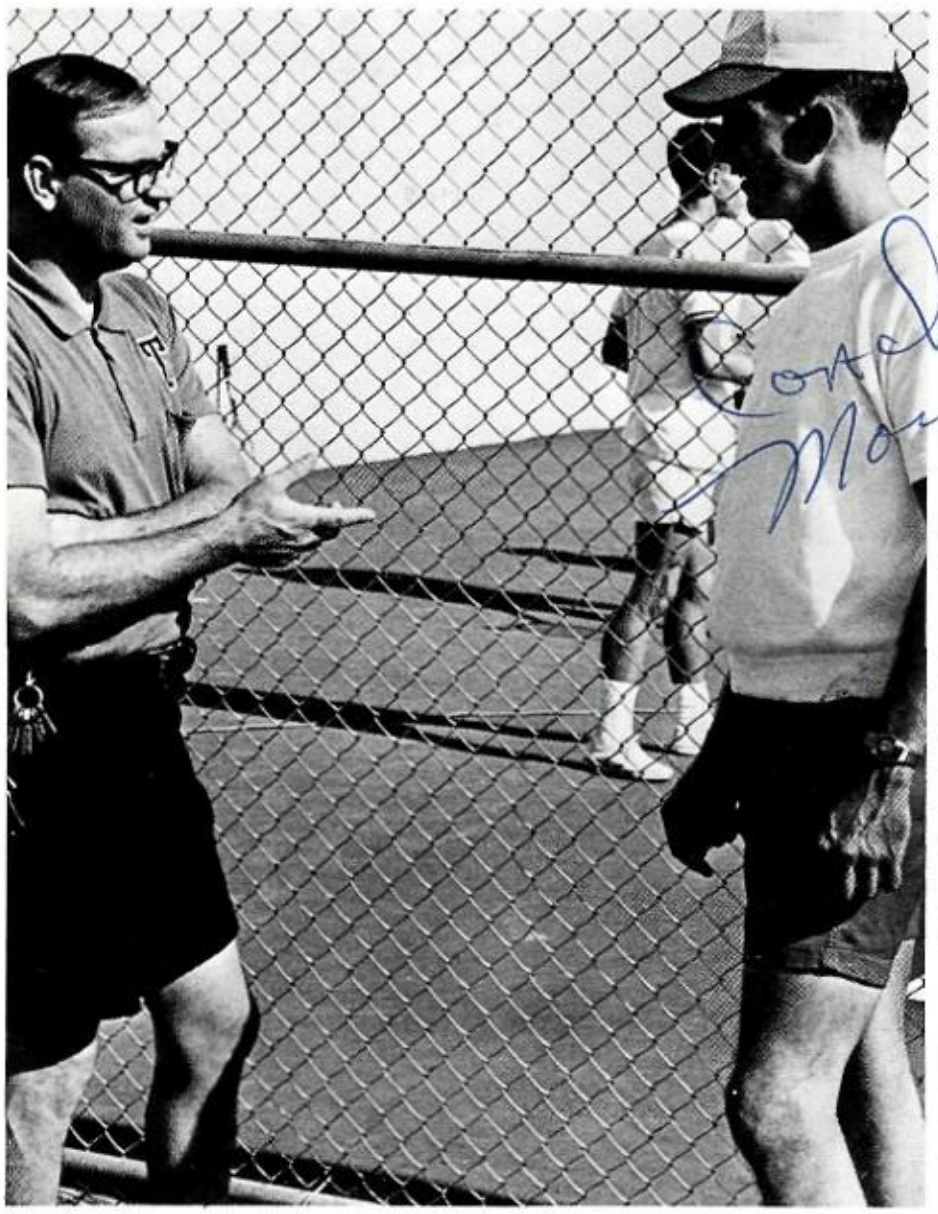
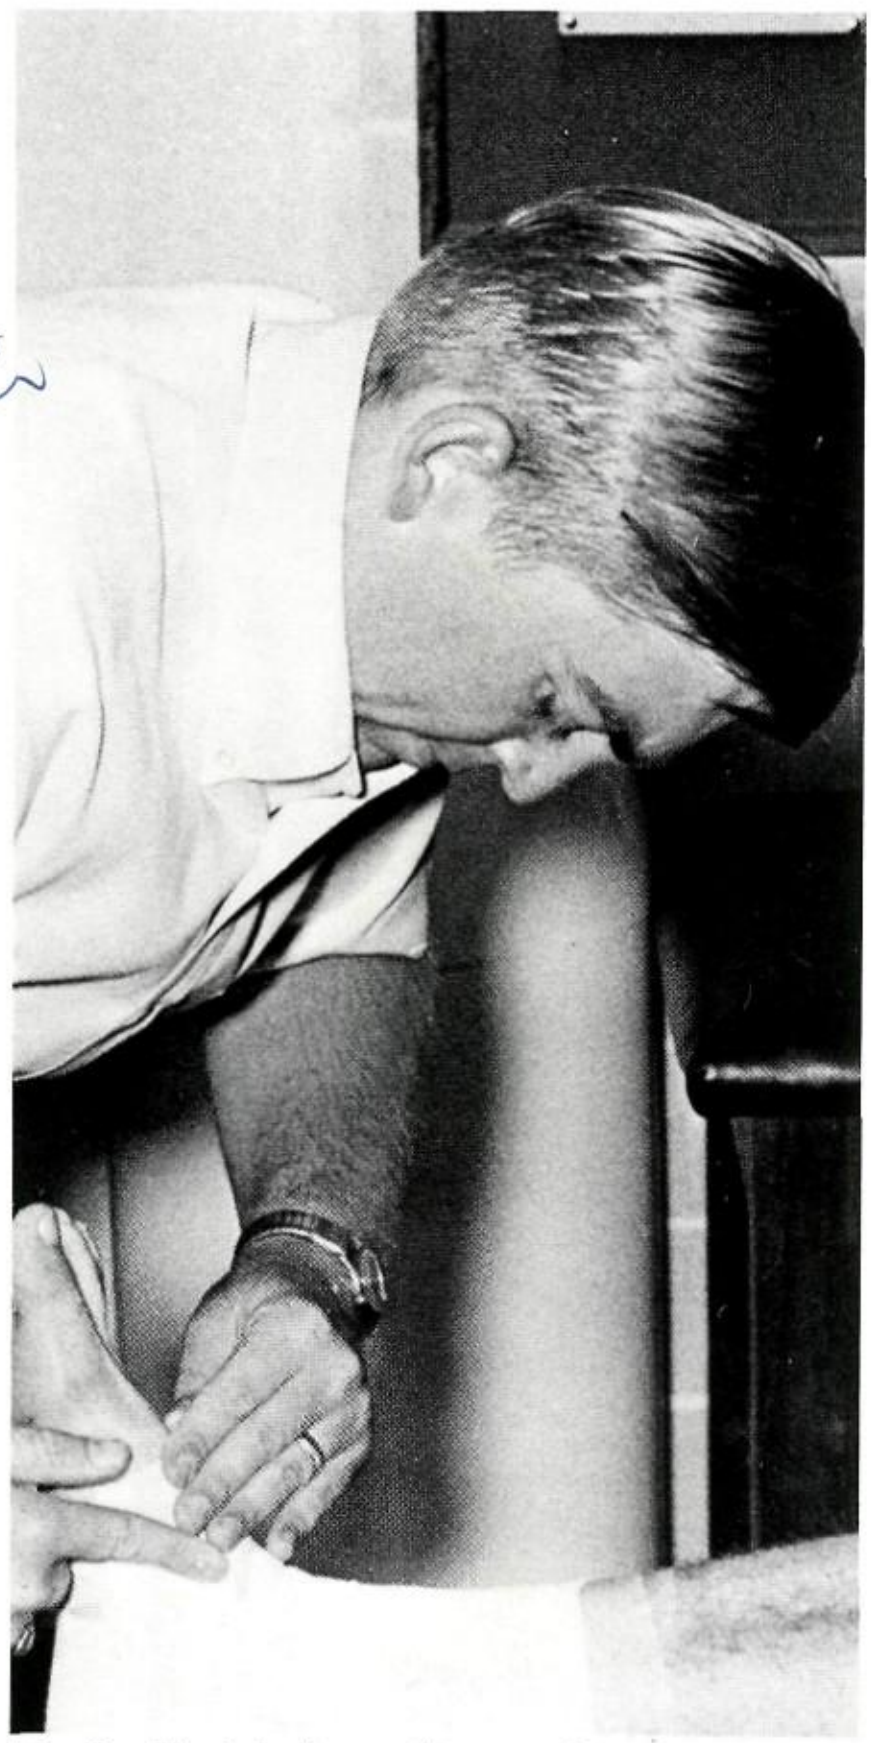
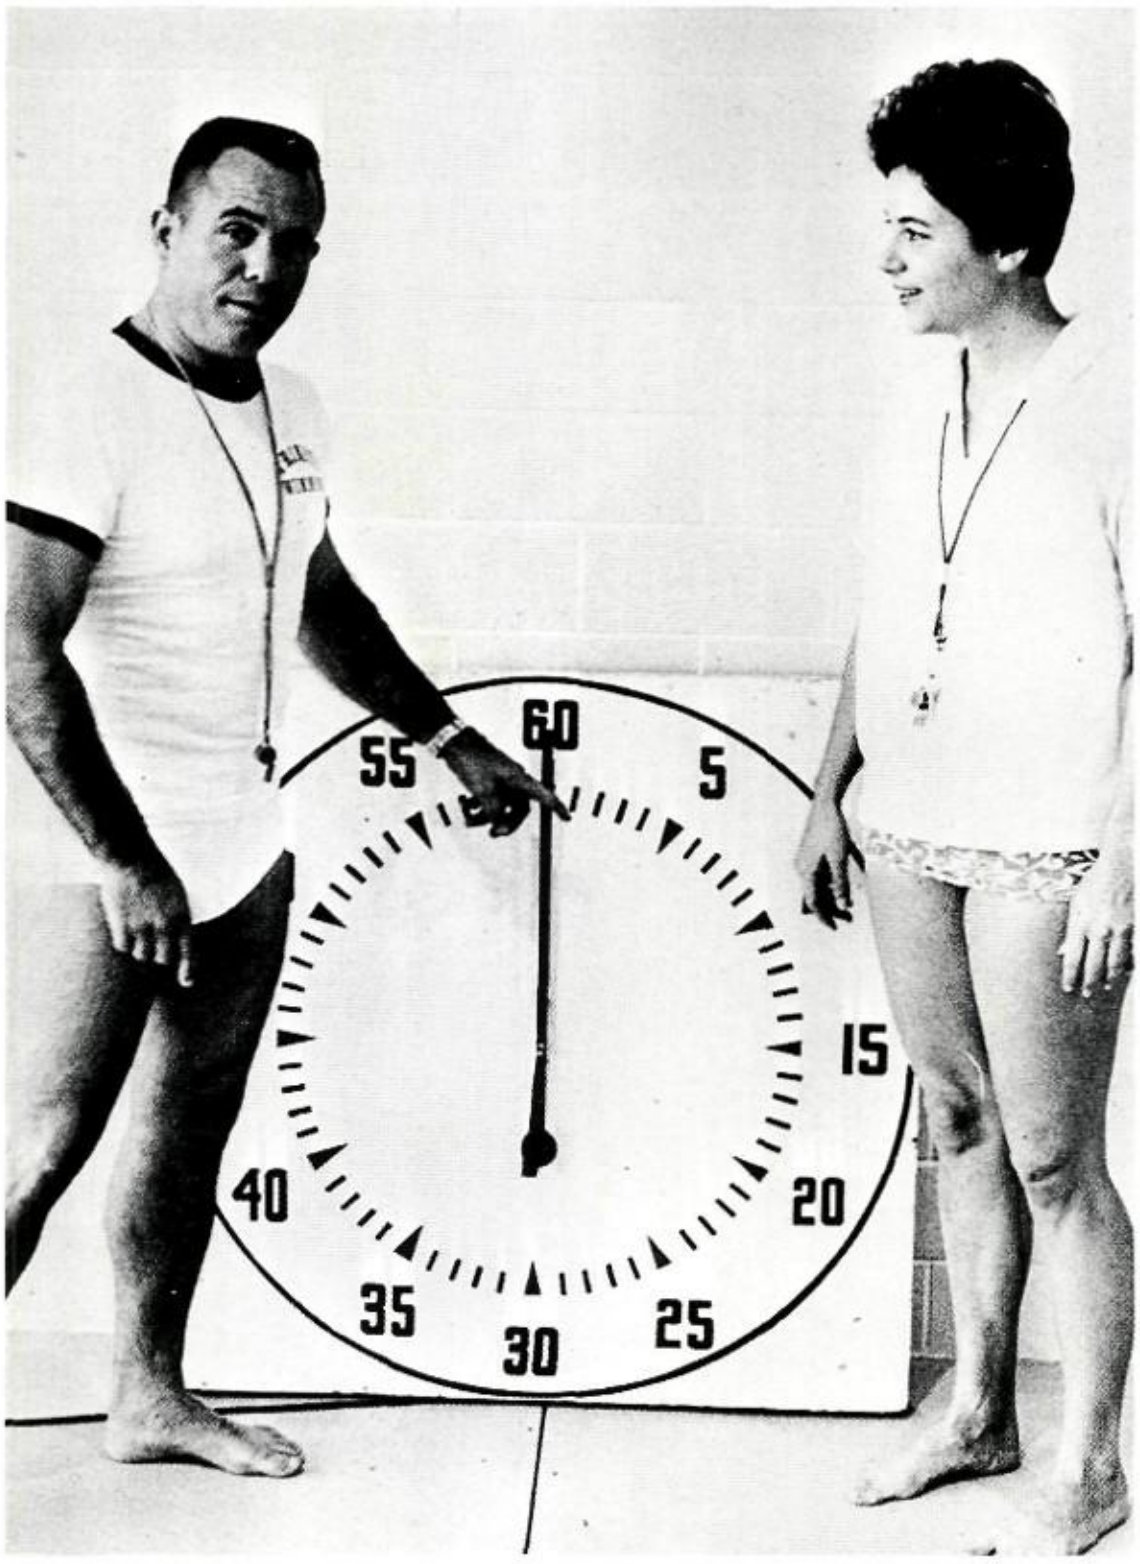
Mrs. Mary Beth Forman and Mrs. Loretta Day try out the basketball greens.



Mr. Jerry Milan and Mr. Tyrone Morris confer on the length of shorts this year.



Mr. Joe Higginbotham: "But coach! You said if we beat Eastern Hills you'd kiss my foot!"

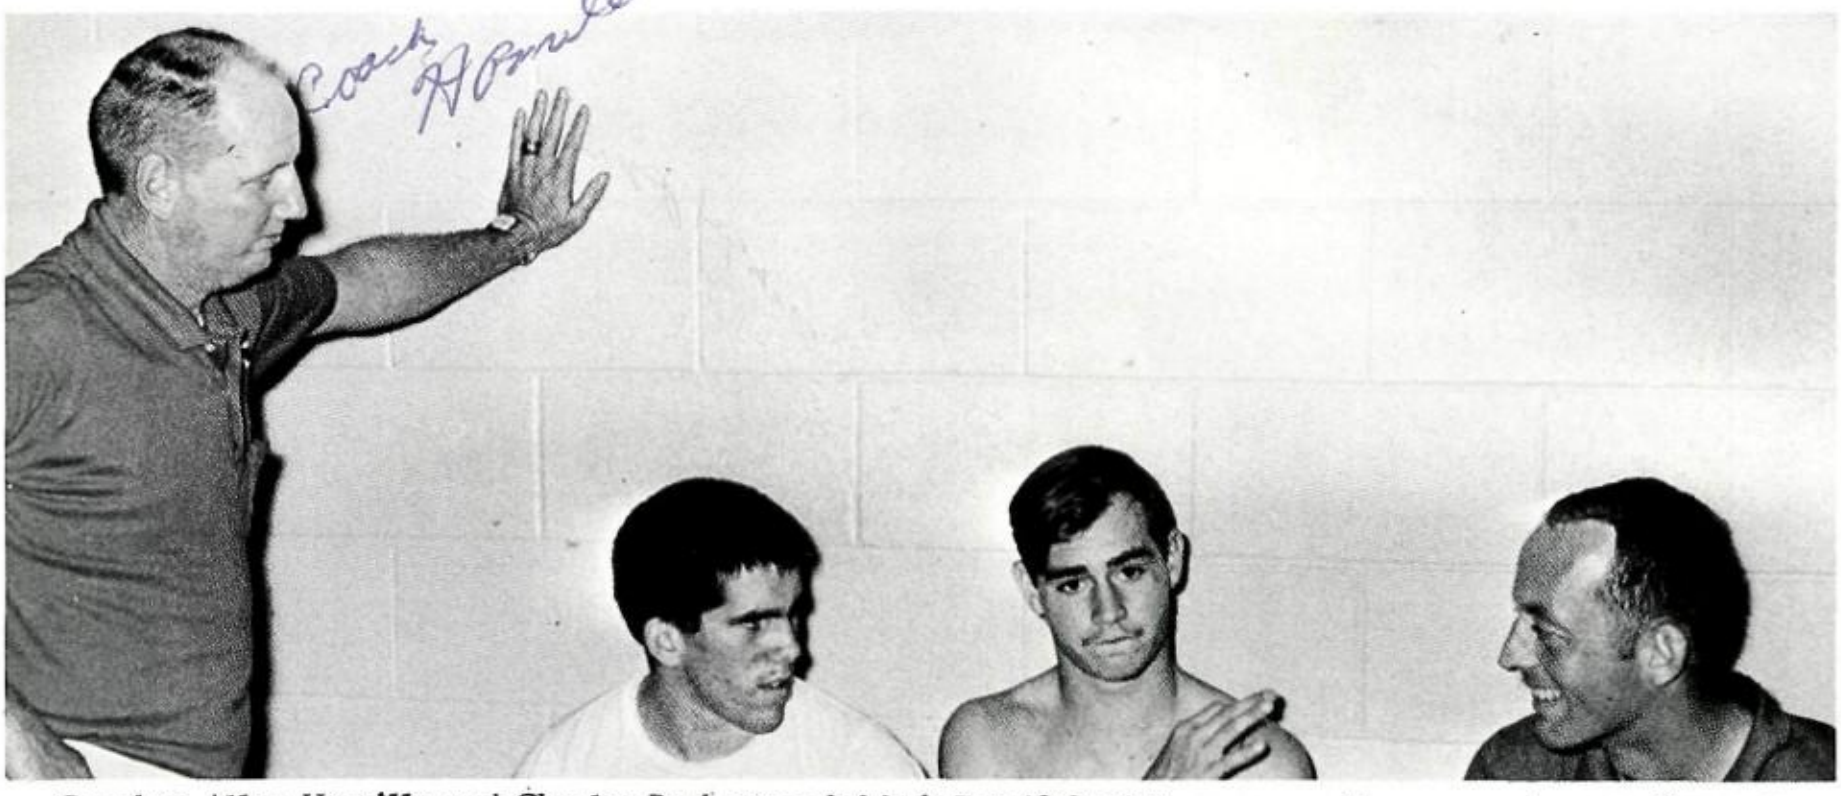


Mr. Don Foglesong and Miss Kay Holleman emphasize the importance of split second timing.

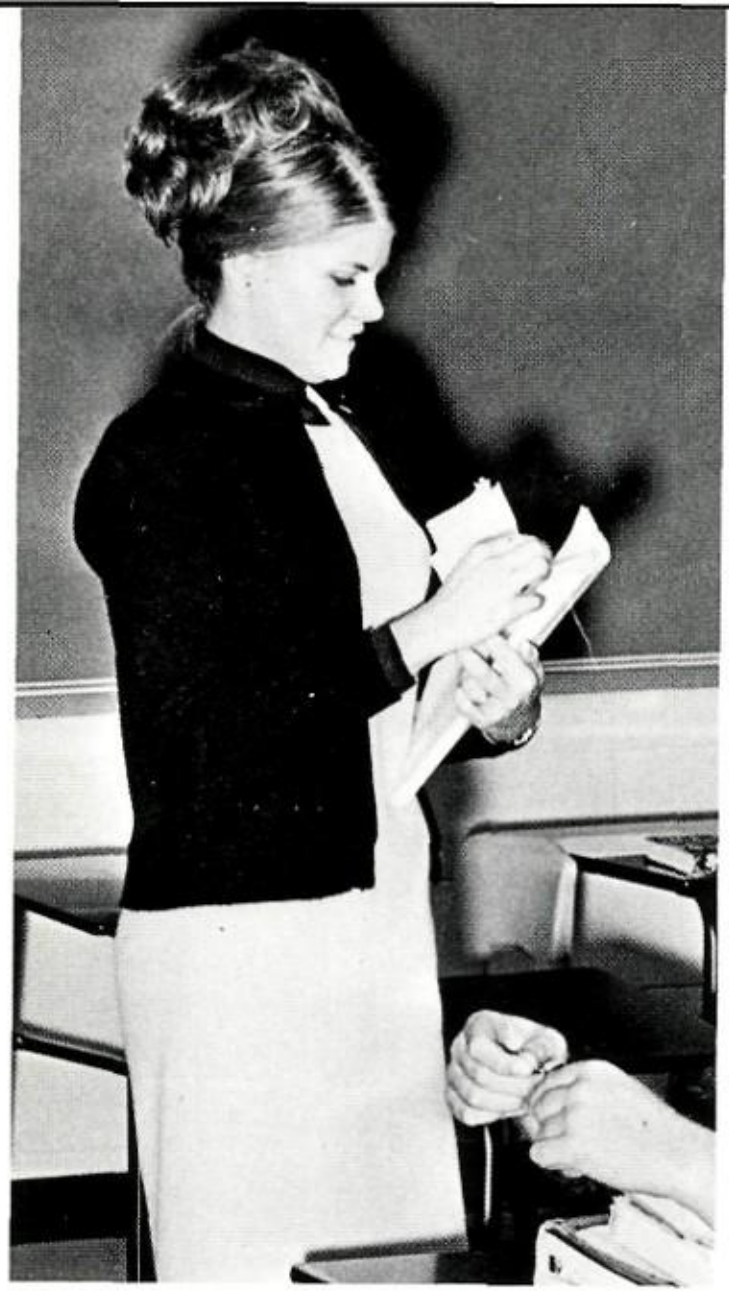
Boys Physical Education, is composed of a system in which freshmen and sophomores rotate skills every 12 weeks and juniors and seniors may rotate or stay in one sport or activity with the instructors approval. The boys rotate through tumbling and gymnastics, swimming and diving, racket sports of tennis, handball, paddle ball and badminton. Team sports include basketball, speedball, soccer, track, and football.

In the girls P. E. classes rotations are also required, but all grades rotate, not just lower classes. Girls develope skills in gymnastics, swimming and diving, water ballet, boating, golf, badminton, softball, basketball, speedball, modern dance and square dance, and team activities.

The ultimate aim of Physical Education is to create in the minds of young adults a positive attitude toward physical activity and healthful living habits that will be practiced daily throughout their lives.

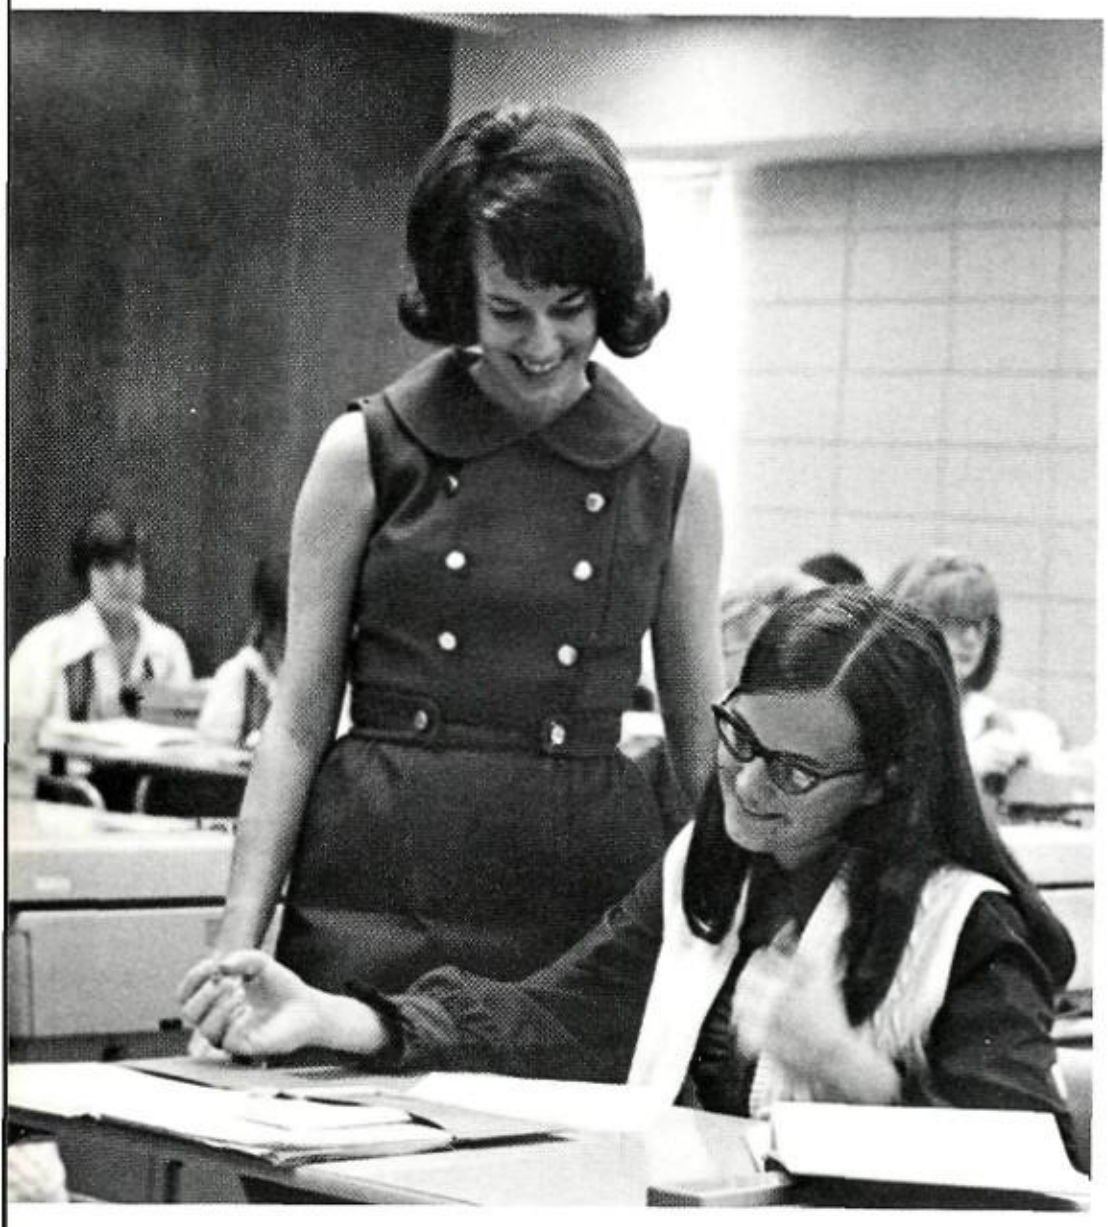


Coaches Allen Harville and Charles Pankratz ask Mark Ray if Cupid's arrow really goes as deep as they say.

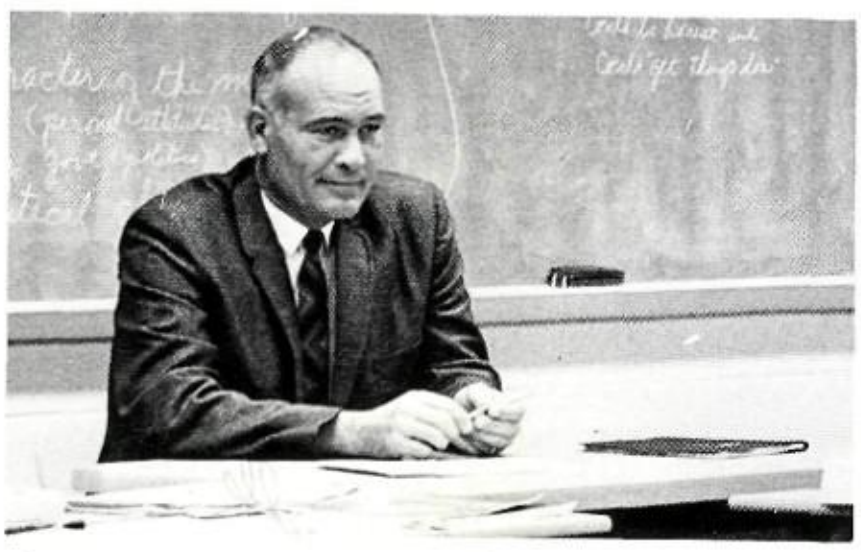


Mrs. Karen Brown: "One for you, two for you, and one for you!"

Mrs. Louise Horton adds her daily grocery list during her spare time.



Mrs. Sallie Duchesne: "Who has a short hand?"



Coach Bill Engle opens his first class with his world-renowned sunshine smile.

Nominees for Christmas Queen were selected through homerooms. Following run-offs, one nominee from the freshman, sophomore, junior, and senior class was selected. Interclass competition was the basis for the final selection of the queen. Individual students made contributions to rival class funds. The class with the lowest donation received the honor of having their nominee named Christmas Ball Queen for 1969-70.

Your really neat, especially for letting me walk through the library & beat on that desk. You're really sweet and have a great personality. Good Luck always.

Self-Government Encourages Student Development

G. Meserole - "What if I fall"

The Student Council of T.H.S. is the action organization of the school. It is the governing body of the school that promotes better relations between the students and administration. A new executive council, which co-ordinates activities of the club, was added this year.

The goal, set by last year's council, has become a reality this year. For the first time, Trinity has an American Field Service student. Hiroshi Takahashi. He comes from Japan and is the pride of the student body.

AH-SO!

Our first exchange student at Trinity High, Hiroshi Takahashi, comes from Japan. He is a senior at Trinity and will graduate along with all other seniors this spring, but when he returns to Japan he will have to attend school another year to receive his official Japanese diploma.

Since living in Texas, Hiroshi has learned to speak English quite well. It is interesting to note that he has taken English for six years.

Having Hiroshi attend T.H.S. has been a very educational and interesting experience for the students. The students learn about the Japanese from Hiro and he in turn learns about our way of life.

Troubadours Present

TRINITY TROUBADOURS

The Trinity Troubadours, for people interested in speech and drama, proved their support for the school by helping with the presentation of the Christmas program, "Our Town," and the Junior and Senior class plays. The Troubadours, under the supervision of Mrs. Beverly Brown, presented the stage production of "Peter Pan" and the spring program.

OFFICERS: Amy Griggs, Debbie Fuller, Mike Rutledge, Barbara Greer, and Julia Owen.

Cast of "Our Town" takes a break.

The first production of a school play became a reality when the cast (shown above) presented the three act play by Thornton Wilder, Our Town. The play was reviewed by many as a very entertaining play as well as extremely emotional. Our Town demonstrated that life is over before it starts, so value it, and don't misuse your chance.

"You Can't Take It With You"

The Junior Class presented "You Can't Take It With You," a play in three acts by Moss Hart and George S. Kaufman. The play, directed by Mrs. Beverly Brown, with student directors Kay Hall and Mike Rutledge, was presented to the public on December 11 and 12.

All area newspapers forecast an easy victory for the undefeated Highlanders of Eastern Hills (6AAAA) over the Trojans of Trinity. The non-district game was played under perfect conditions at Handley Field. The young football team of Trinity was well prepared for an upset over the Highlanders after a week of workouts in which practices were geared against the strong running backs of E. H. The offensive struggle between the two teams resulted in the first major Trojan victory, and the first E. H. defeat.

Happiness is Defeating the Undefeated ... The T. H. S. Trojans stunned the Cougars of Western Hills with their first and only loss of the regular season. Going into the hard fought defensive battle, the Cougars had a perfect record of 7 and 0, while the Trojans were 4-4 for the season. This major victory over the Cougars, proved to the area odds-makers that you can't underestimate the ability of the young Euless team.

Well there isn't REALLY to much ROOM so All I'll SAY is "Good luck" Love Always HARRY

Varsity Meets Challenge of District Competition

The first athletic contest with Trinity participating in District 4A-6 proved to be a successful venture for the Trojans. The Trojan basketball team (pre-season choice for the cellar) once again showed the experts that the young new school should not be underestimated. The first district win for the Trojans was their victory over the Irving Tigers. The victory came as a blow to the local cross-town rival Bell, as well as to most of the local people who had considered the Trojan team to be out of the race for the district crown.

The Trojans followed up the victory with another stunning defeat against the Arlington Colts. With this victory the Trinity team was well on its way to the first half crown of 4A-6.

Defeat hit the Trojans very hard as cross-town rival, L. D. Bell up-ended the Trojans before a capacity plus crowd of 2500 at the Bell gymnasium. It was the first defeat of district play that the Trojans had encountered. The spirit of T. H. S. never gave up as the Raiders lanced Trinity 62 to 54.

Track and Field Competition

The Trojan track and field team is coached by Mr. Allan Harville. The squad's second year at Trinity was highlighted by a trip to Houston's Astrodome made by ten members of the team. The track season, which extends from February to April, schedules a meet for almost every week. The workouts are divided into distance and sprints, and each boy works on his specialty under the supervision of Coach Harville.
